CRAB ORCHARD.

The little sons of James Anderson have measles and Mr. Duke's infant has whooping cough. All are doing well.

There is enough lumber, apparently, at the lumber yard to build a little city. It, with a great many fine locust posts, awaits shipment.

Eld. Shepherd will likely accept the call to the pastorate of the Baptist church here and should he do so, he will move his family here, which will be a pleasant addition to Crab Orchard.

Those who have ice houses ready for ice, have despaired of getting them filled, but Mr. Wm. Stewart says he has put up ice as late as the middle of March. Our winter has certainly been remarkable so far.

Dr. Doores has felt the hand of affliction upon him. His brother and sister of Lancaster, have both been very ill, his wife seriously sick and his little grandson, of Rowland, very low with scarlet fever. He made a brief visit to his brother and sister last week.

Eld. C. A. Moore, of Lancaster, accompanied Mr. A. H. Bastin and family as they bore the remains of little Margaret to this place for burial. Bro. Moore made a few remarks, closing with a touching benediction at the grave of the sweet little one. Miss Lullie McClure returned home with Mrs. Bastin.

Mrs. Dr. Doores has been ill for some time with pneumonia and grip. Dr. Bailey, of Stanford, was called to see her. She is reported better at this writing. J. C. Rinehart, of Livingston, visited friends here the past week. Mr. James Holman and wife, of Stanford, spent a few days with the groom and bride, Mr. David Holman and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, nee Miss Lockie Dillion, of Livingston, visited Mrs. Dillion Saturday. Messrs. Joe and Will Brooks were in town this week. They seem quite lonely without their mother and sister, who are spending the winter in Atlanta. Mrs. Mary Morgan and children, of McKinney, are spending a few days with Mrs. Margaret Gormley. Mrs. J. B. Willis, of C. O. Springs Hotel, went to Richmond Saturday for a brief visit to her mother, Mrs. Dejanett. W. A. Beazley and family went to Lancaster to be present at the burial of little Eugene, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Beazley. Eld. Shepherd, of Paint Lick, preached two excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlahan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

David Nation, husband of the rapid-fire saloon smasher, when he heard that legal assistants had been appointed to close saloons in Kansas said: "This is just as I said last night. If my wife had remained at home instead of going East on a lecture tour, she would now be right in it. This is the time for her to strike, and instead of shooting off her mouth to people who only laugh at her, she could be right here doing good. I think my wife has plainly shown she is losing her head over the notoriety of the thing. If she does not return and smash saloons while the iron is hot and the officers have agreed to help her, then she is a bigger fool than I take her for."

Jacob Price has a meal shovel that is over 300 years old. It is of some kind of wood which grew in Germany, where it was made, and brought here by his great-grand-parents, and has been kept in the family as a relic. It is in a fine state of preservation, not a crack or flaw about it. He also has a large bottle given him by his father, which is 119 years old, and warranted to hold one gallon and a quart.—Georgetown Times.

An exchange tells us of a lady who had a boarder and every time he would come to the table he would say, "Hebrews 13:8." Finally, the lady's curiosity became aroused and she got her Bible and investigated. She was very much shocked, and may be you would be, too, when you find out what she read.

At a meeting of the Republicans of Martin county to draft rules governing their primary which will be held March 15, they adopted a rule to force Democrats desiring to vote to swear they voted for McKinley at the late election.

MONTICELLO.

Monticello has a new library containing 30 volumes and a number of new subscribers.

Elder Allen Ballou delivered discourses Sunday morning and evening at the Union church.

Rev. U. G. Foote, of Chestnut St. church, Louisville, will commence a series of meetings here Sunday night.

John Oatts, Sr., has been a sufferer from tonsillitis for several days. Wm. Tuttle and wife entertained the Carom Club Wednesday evening.

The long talked of bank will soon be a reality, as the contract has been closed and the building will be erected as soon as practicable. J. R. Oatts, Sr., and brother, of Augusta, are leaders of the enterprise and will rush the work along.

The W. C. T. U. will entertain Saturday by music and addresses for 30 minutes and then the L. T. L. will have charge, giving the audience songs, recitations and drills. Mrs. Ethel Wilhite has trained the little ones and from 12 at the first meeting, she now has 75 members in the band.

Mrs. Juan Hall is some better. Bertie Shearer is attending college in Nashville. Dr. Switzer, of Bronston, has located here and moved his family to the residence of Mrs. Juan Hall. Mrs. Ada E. Phillips is suffering from grip. Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Berwald have gone to Bradford, Penn., to live. Walter N. Filippin has returned from Arkansas. Preston Beck, accompanied by his family left for Garrard this week, where he recently purchased a valuable farm.

Prof. Ragan will give an elocutionary contest Feb. 22 at the court house. Misses Lella and Evelyn Kendrick, Emma Ramsey, Willie Francis, Litha Shearer, Berta Stone and Kittie Kendrick are the contestants. Miss Eva Jones has trained the young ladies and this is all that is necessary to say that it will be a success so far as her skill is concerned. A gold medal will be presented the fortunate one and Misses Susie and Bessie Lanier and Joe Morrow are judges of the occasion.

Blessings as well as troubles never come singly, so our little city will soon be bustling with enterprise. J. P. Royce and L. W. Lockridge of Aurora, Ind., came here a few days ago to contract for white oak timber and a site to erect a stove manufactory. Everything proving favorable, the foreman, Mr. Wyman, came on and closed the necessary arrangements. The building will be erected on the vacant lot of Capt. J. Stephenson on Michigan Ave. The timber of Frank and Lewis Coffey and H. L. Phillips at 75 cents per tree has been secured.

Mountain farm of 100 acres, 2½ miles North of Grays Station, Knox county, for sale. Good coal and timber. Cheap. A. B. Siler, Crab Orchard, Ky.

It is about time stallion and jack owners were advertising their stock. They should bear in mind that there is no better medium than the INTERIOR JOURNAL to do so.

P. J. Dwyer bought of Capt. James B. Clay, of Fayette, for $1,000, two fine Handspring colts. One is a bay colt out of Mendro; the other a brown filly out of War Mantle.

Hart Gibson, Jr., of Lexington, has filed suit against the Latonia people for $12,000, the value placed on Pirate Belle, a race mare which fell over a projection from a fence while running a race November 10, last, and was killed.

A collar, cuff and shirt manufacturers' combine is the latest thing in trusts. Its capital aggregates $20,000,000.

MIDDLEBURG.

Mc. D. Jones had a close call a few days ago. He was working at Cy Wall's mill on Indian Creek, when the edging saw caught his glove, taking off the tips of the fingers and also the tips of a couple of Mack's fingers.

Mrs. Harriette Leonard, wife of Wm. Leonard, died at Yosemite Thursday with pneumonia. She was a daughter of Benjamin Tinsley and was perhaps the tallest woman in the county. Her measure when brought here for a coffin was found to be 6 feet 7½ inches in length.

A young man by the name of Wilson, of the Doc Creek section, was showing a friend how his (Wilson's) cousin was accidentally shot when the gun with which he was demonstrating was discharged, the ball taking effect in his shoulder near where he said his cousin was shot. The wound is a painful one, though not dangerous.

W. C. Russell and his two sons, Mack and Luther, are confined to their beds with grip. Miss Kate McIntosh is able to sit up most of the time after being in bed nearly five months with fever. Miss Kate was at J. C. Coulter's when his house burned, and was carried down a long flight of stairs by Maria Wills, her colored nurse.

Editor Knott, of the Louisville Post, is having trouble with new found friends. He left the democratic party or rather was kicked out of it for his cussedness, and now the republicans in Louisville have turned their backs on him, and he hasn't time to scratch between kicks. It seems that Knott was never intended for anything but a foot ball.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Magistrate C. C. Burton, aged 71, is dead in Jessamine.

Thomas Cotton, a prominent stock trader of Spencer county, committed suicide at Lawrenceburg.

James M. Moberly was finally acquitted by the jury, which was hung up at Harrodsburg from Friday till Monday.

R. M. Jackson, cashier of the First National Bank, of London, and R. C. Ford, of Middlesboro, have purchased the Pittsburg Coal Company's property at Pittsburg. It is one of the largest coal plants in the section, and works several hundred men.

Mrs. M. P. Tunis died at her residence in Danville Tuesday of pneumonia, in the 73d year of her age. She leaves two sons, Mr. N. K. Tunis, of Danville, and Mr. J. Theodore Tunis, of Lexington, and three daughters, Mrs. W. W. Dickerson, of Williams-town, and Misses Kate and Lou Tunis, of Danville.

REMARKABLE WEATHER.—The record breaking mildness of the present winter puts the old inhabitants up a tree without frost-biting him. Every month of the 12 just past has been marked by thunderstorms, or more or less brilliant electrical displays in the heavens. This was noticeably the case in December and January. Grass-hoppers and lightning-bugs were seen in the meadows the last of December. No ice has been gathered, nor skating done. Days in January were as balmy as April, and the general temperature of midwinter was but little severer than that of early spring. Snow has not lain on the ground so long as 12 hours at any time during the winter. With an early and open spring, a most remarkable cycle of seasons will close, and Hicks will be demonstrated to be biggest liar that ever talked about the weather.—Glasgow Times.

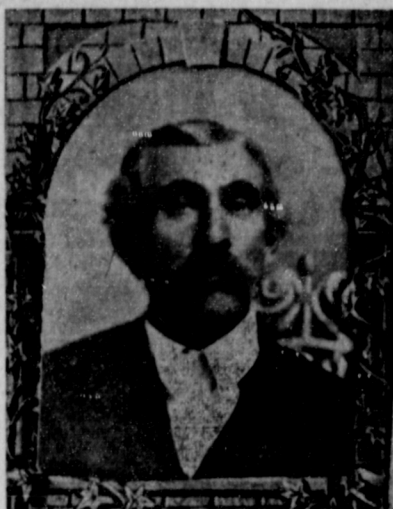

Mrs. Nancy A. Mitchell, of Lyon county, is believed to have the largest number of living descendants of any woman in Kentucky, if not in the United States. She has 237 living descendants, including 10 children, 109 grandchildren, 120 great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren. Mrs. Mitchell has been married 70 years. Only one of her children died.

Craig & Hocker, guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for laryngitis, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of cold to result in pneumonia.

In the churchyard of Leigh, near Bolton, will be found a tombstone bearing the following amazing sentence: "A virtuous woman is 5s. to her husband." The explanation seems to be that space prevented "a crown" being cut in full, and the stonemason argued that a crown equals five shillings.

While a mob was besieging the jail at Crested Butte, Col., and threatening to lynch George Buric, he committed suicide by hanging himself to a window bar in his cell with an electric light wire. Buric was arrested on a charge of having criminally assaulted Kate Mufich, 12 years of age.

The Yaqua Indians are again on the warpath. They killed several ranchmen in Mexico.

ROBERT G. JONES,

Stanford's Excellent Chief of Police.

Misses Bettina and Al. Anderson gave a handsome dining Thursday at their country home.

The many friends here at his old home will regret to learn of the serious illness of Ashbrook Frank.

Elder A. R. Moore will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning on the theme, "A Name to Live."

Miss Iva Ball and Wm. F. Eason, both of this county, were married on Tuesday at the county clerk's office.

The C. W. B. M. Auxiliary, of this place, will educate a native girl of India, and name her for the pastor's little daughter, Mary Moore.

Several members of Dr. Herring's family have been victims of the grip. C. W. Anderson and children have also suffered from the same disease.

Mr. Spauldower, an aged farmer of the Point Leavell locality, died of a general decline Tuesday and the interment took place at Paint Lick Wednesday.

Porter J. White, now reputed to be the finest impersonator extant of "Mephisto," will appear here at the opera house in "Faust" on Saturday night Feb. 16.

Will Adams and Taylor Gibbs, two Negro lads, were tried for stealing $20 from a white boy named Kaiser Adams was released on the promise of a severe flogging from his mother, and Taylor was returned to confinement.

J. E. Stormes was so unfortunate as to run a rusty nail into his foot a few days since. He and his friends have been somewhat apprehensive, as there have been several cases of blood-poisoning and tetanus resulting from similar wounds.

Mr. Nixon Perkins, ill of pneumonia, has had a relapse and his condition is serious. Wilson Moore, son of Thos. S. Moore, of the same section, is also quite ill of pneumonia. Mrs. Dalton, of the Fall Lick locality, is seriously sick from grip.

Announcement cards were received here Thursday of the marriage on the 12th of Miss Mary Robertson, of Elizabethtown, and Theodore Wintersmith, of Louisville. Miss Robertson has been a frequent visitor to this city, being related to Mrs. E. L. Poor and family.

Henry Arnold, son of H. C. Arnold, of this vicinity, is quite ill and had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs. His sickness is unusually sad as several members of the family have fallen victims to that fatal disease, consumption, and there have been five deaths in the household within about four years.

Mr. Milton Ward, of Jonesville, Va., is the guest of his son, O. H. Ward. Mrs. George D. Lusk left for Louisville Tuesday to join her invalid husband, who is under the treatment of a specialist. Mrs. George M. Patterson, president of the District W. C. T. U., is at Livingston in the interest of temperance work.

With a sermon last Sunday morning at the Christian church by Elder A. E. Moore entitled, "Satan's Throne," and a thrilling impersonation of Mephistophiles at the opera house Saturday night, it is very likely the Lancaster people will be deeply impressed by this double warning of shunning that downward course that leads to an everlasting association with his "Satanic Majesty." Pictorial representations of Dante's Inferno have taught invaluable lessons.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

In a duel near Thacker, W. Va., John Ray was killed.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

THE State board of valuation fixes the aggregate amount of railroad franchises to be certified to the various counties at $56,408,184. The average rate of taxation combined for counties, municipalities and school districts is at least $1.10 on each $100 worth of property, at which rate the total amount of money to be expended by the railroads to the various counties, cities and school districts will reach the enormous total of $620,420.02 for the four years from 1896 to 1900 inclusive. The franchise of the L. & N. is stated at $25,809,495 and the C. & O. $72,994,205. The C. & O. comes next with a little over $8,000,000. Paying as they do a full assessment on their tangible property to the State, counties, towns and schools, this extra tax seems to be in the nature of a hardship on the roads, which is likely to react on the State.

BERRY HOWARD, indicted for complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, sends word to Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin that he will surrender at any time if that gentleman will agree to give him bail. Now let Gov. Beckham show Howard that he can be made to surrender, bail or no bail, by putting a price on his head that will bring him in. It would be a lesson that would do such fellows good and cause them to change their opinion of the laws of Kentucky.

THE way that the U. S. court of appeals sat down on Judge Evans in the Kentucky election cases was a caution and will doubtless take some of the conceit out of the Louisville man that he is not the whole thing, that citizens of this State have some rights that even a Federal judge must respect, and that the characters of men on trial can not be rudely assailed from the bench without evidence and without warrant.

IT'S anything to beat the democrats. The republicans, Brownies and Middle-of-the-Road populists have called a joint mass convention at Owensboro on April 6 to nominate a mixed ticket for the county and magisterial district offices against the democratic nominees. What's the matter with the prohibitionists that they didn't fall in line too?

THE Capital Punishment Bill, introduced by Senator Smith, in the Kansas Senate, was defeated 18 to 11. A sentiment in favor of restoring capital punishment in Kansas was aroused by the recent burning of the Negro Alexander at Leavenworth and that the bill should be defeated by such a decisive vote occasions some surprise.

THE last move in the cumbersome machinery in the election of a president and vice president was made Wednesday when the House and Senate, in joint session, canvassed the electoral vote for president and vice president, and declared William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt duly elected. No vote was disputed.

THE president has signed the bill dividing Kentucky into two Federal court districts and will take up the question of appointments soon. It is a great outrage that the people are to be taxed for the useless district, formed entirely to furnish places for the faithful, who are not able to earn a living in a legitimate way.

IN the matter of appointment to the judgeship for the new Federal court district, George Denny's name seems likely to continue to be Dennis.

MR. CYNTHIANA DEMOCRAT: Your explanation is thoroughly satisfactory. We freely forgive and will try to forget.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

Hon. M. F. North announced in this paper a few days since among other things that he was for the Hon. James B. McCreary for United States Senator. He has no advantage over me in that respect for I am also for Mr. McCreary as the caucus nominee for U. S. Senator and will vote for him as long as he is before the caucus.

ANDREW W. BUCHANAN.

POLITICAL.

Mrs. Thomas C. Platt, wife of the United States Senator from New York, is dead.

Representative Gilbert made a speech in the House in opposition to the Ship Subsidy Bill.

Rolla Wells, a wealthy foundry man, was nominated for Mayor by the Democrats of St. Louis.

Representative Boreing has introduced a bill in the House establishing a court of pension appeals.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Fitzhugh Lee to be brigadier general in the regular army.

The Court of Appeals holds that the Governor alone has the power to appoint magistrates to fill vacancies.

There are now more than 36,000 claims of veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars awaiting action at the Pension Bureau.

The testimony against C. F. W. Neely, the alleged Havana post-office embezzler, already covers 2,000 typewritten pages, and many more witnesses are to be examined by the government.

An extra session of the Maryland Legislature has been called by Gov. John W. Smith, the principal object being to pass a bill reforming the election laws by disfranchising the illiterate voters of the State.

The republican primary in Knox county resulted as follows: James Miller, county judge; John Parker, county clerk; William Byrley, sheriff; Jesse D. Tuggle, county attorney, and M. J. Hignite, county superintendent.

The American Commissioners are meeting with cordial welcome in the Philippine provinces, the natives generally turning out in large numbers and cheering the "Americanos" and manifesting other evidences of good will.

The republican organs in Louisville are now so busy blackguarding one another they haven't much time to misrepresent the democratic party. They are not hitting a lick amiss, either. It is easy and not unpleasant to believe all each says about the other.—Owensboro Messenger.

It is understood the President has decided to appoint A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, and James Tinsley, of Barbourville, judge and district attorney respectively for the new Kentucky Federal judicial district. G. M. Davidson, of Stanford, has Deboe's endorsement for Assistant District Attorney. At Lexington, Judge Frank A. Bullock instructed Stakeholder Spears to refund $50 paid Charles Foushee on a bet with Frank Galvin, who wagered that amount that Goebel would defeat Taylor. Judge Bullock claimed that Galvin, who had notified Spears not to pay the money, had the right to withdraw the bet.

The failure of the Kentucky officials to make requisition on Governor Darbo, of Indiana, for the surrender of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley, Goebel suspects, is causing speculation. It is said no requisition will be asked for till after the decision of the Court of Appeals in the cases of Jim Howard and Caleb Powers.

In a speech at the Republican Club dinner in New York Whitelaw Reid discussed a protectorate for Cuba—the local government under its own control, but its foreign relations, and perhaps its customs, under ours. As to annexation, he feared it would be followed by a demand for statehood, which would work the ruin of our continental republic.

Senator Towne served just 56 days and drew $712 as salary and $288 for mileage—$1,000 in all. During his brief term he only delivered one speech. It was 20,000 words in length and occupied three hours and two minutes. As that speech was about the only public service Mr. Towne performed during his senatorial career it is estimated that the government paid him at the rate of $5.50 a minute, or 5 cents a word.

Col. Jack Chinn who is in the city said: "Taylor thought he had everything arranged, for the two men who did the killing had pardons signed from him already in their pockets. But the trouble was that Goebel did not die soon enough, but lived long enough to see Taylor's undoing. Taylor may think he is safe, but some of these days—and that soon—public opinion will be so strong that the Governor of Indiana will have to give the fugitive up."—Washington Times.

The United States circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati reversed the election cases from Louisville against Crites, Mullen, Locke and O'Neill. The reversal is on the error of Judge Evans in his instructions in referring to the character of the accused when there was no evidence bearing on that point. In the case of C. E. Lackey, of Middlesboro, the court ordered that the case be remanded to the Kentucky court and ordered his dismissal on the grounds that the statute under which he was convicted was unconstitutional.

A meeting of the Democratic County Committee is called to meet in Stanford Saturday, Feb. 23rd, 1901, at the office of the secretary. The candidates for nomination for county offices will on that day submit the list of names of persons whom they wish to act as officers of the election in each voting precinct and the officers shall be as nearly equally divided as possible amongst the various candidates.

In the prize fight at Junction City Wednesday night Kid Hubert, of Louisville, knocked Connors, of St. Louis, out in the third round. The bout was pulled off in the Maccabee Hall in the presence of some 250 people.

REPUBLICAN candidates in Rockcastle are about as thick as the democratic candidates are in Lincoln. There are a half dozen or more rads who would like to be judge, while the woods are full of candidates for sheriff and jailer.

KNOWING ones say Hon. Ben B. King, of Moreland, will be the republican nominee for sheriff, but we have faith in Mr. King's judgment and don't believe a word of it. He knows as well as we do that this is democratic year and that he wouldn't have a ghost of a show.

VERY little talk is being indulged in concerning the graded school election to be held March 24. If you think it will benefit Stanford to the extent of the tax to be levied, vote for it; if not, vote against it. The question is of some importance and should be thoroughly considered.

THERE is one less candidate for jailer today. James T. Jones and Dink Farmer agreed to let 11 men in the Turnersville section decide their destinies and Mr. Farmer got the majority of them, and Mr. Jones has withdrawn from the race for jailer. This is one way, and may be a good way, of decreasing the large number of candidates Lincoln county has.

SUED FOR $1,000.—Jane Jeffries, colored, has, through her attorney, W. E. Varnon, sued Thomas C. Ball for $1,000 damages for removing a door and the windows from the house she rented from him and lived in. Mr. Ball's contracts stipulate that unless rent is paid promptly he has the right to do as he did in this case. He has secured the best legal talent in town and will fight the case for all it is worth.

SUICIDED.—James H. Pugh, of Pittsburg, who married Miss Lottie Dillion, of Crab Orchard, committed suicide at the Emory Hotel, Cincinnati, by taking laudanum. He left an affectionate letter to his wife. On another slip of paper was written the following: "Young boys, beware of the first drink." A pathetic feature of the suicide was the finding of three small gold lockets and chains, a pair of baby shoes and a pair of baby's white gloves, which articles he had evidently purchased for his loved ones. He was a past chancellor, Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Order of Red Men. His father, W. A. Pugh, is manager of a large coal company at Pittsburg, and is in fine shape financially. The deceased was about 30 years of age. The remains were brought to London yesterday morning and interred in the cemetery there at 10 o'clock. Mr. Pugh was the cleverest kind of a young man and had legions of friends who regret his rash act. Much sympathy is felt for his widow and two little daughters.

To My Lincoln County Friends.

I would be glad to visit you in your homes and talk with you relative to our schools and my candidacy for school superintendent, but find that I can not do so and perform the duties of my office. I feel that having taught eight public schools, served as trustee and soon will have served one term as superintendent, that I am qualified to serve you again. I appreciate the interest you have manifested in school work while I have been your superintendent and will appreciate any assistance given me in the coming primary, March 16. Respectfully,

GARLAND SINGLETON,

MT. VERNON.—A portion of two days spent in Mt. Vernon impressed the writer that that town is making rapid strides to the forefront. When we first went there some 15 years ago, there were only four or five business houses, few good residences and the place generally had the appearance of a town inhabited by the Rip Van Winkle stripe, while most of them seemed to be enjoying almost as long a nap as old Rip did. To-day things are different. A bank is doing a splendid business, elegant two-story residences are numerous, while several of her business buildings would make Stanford ashamed of herself. The magnificent business house of Hook & Co., Mr. J. T. Adams, formerly of Garrard, being the company, is filled with over $10,000 worth of goods and the business this firm does would open the eyes of some city merchants. With goods upstairs and down, they can furnish almost anything from a corkscrew to a second-hand pulpit and their prices are always right. Jonas McKenzie runs a splendid general merchandise store while J. W. Baker & Son, S. W. Davis, Cox Bros., W. M. Poynter and others get their share of the patronage in the general merchandise line. Two drug stores, C. C. Davis and Theo. Wesley, proprietors, carry up-to-date stocks and enjoy good trade. Andy J. Fish is the ready-to-please restaurateur of the town, and a good one he is. Fritz Krueger, who is just back from a visit to relatives in Germany, is the contractor of the town. Besides building the court house and several residences at Harlan last year he put up several substantial houses in Mt. Vernon. Mt. Vernon has a splendid lot of lawyers headed by Messrs. C. C. & R. G. Williams, one of the strongest legal firms in the State. Nearly every house, business and private, has a telephone and Manager James Maret gives the best service in the country. Two hotels, the Joplin House and the Miller House, do a thriving business and the weary traveler will be well taken care of at either place. Mr. J. L. Joplin, proprietor of the first named hotel, has spent the 71 years of his life in Mt. Vernon. He knows every man in the county and is probably the best posted man on local affairs in Rockcastle. Though over three-score and 10, he took the census of the Mt. Vernon district in less than 20 days, although the boundary runs miles out in the country. Four doctors, S. W. Davis, A. G. Lorell, G. B. Lawrence and M. Pennington, attend the wants of the sick, and right now they are doing a big business. The duldest court in years is in session at Mt. Vernon and fairly good crowds are attending daily. The docket is light and the lawyers won't get much out of it. Judge Morrow, looking younger and better than for years, is on hand dispensing justice in his usual able way. The visiting attorneys are Judge J. W. Alcorn and W. E. Varnon, of Stanford, and Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt, of Crab Orchard. Editor Albright met the writer at the depot with money and new subscribers and put him under additional obligations by substantially assisting him.

MATRIMONIAL.

Tiff Crutchfield, aged 18, and Miss Mattie McCarley, 18, were married at Mrs. E. J. McCarley's Tuesday.

Mr. Guy Scott Warren, of Chicago, and Miss Katherine McCreary Bronston, daughter of Hon. C. J. Bronston, were married at Lexington Tuesday.

Jesse R. Routt and Miss Lucy B. Tucker, both of the West End, will drive to Liberty on the 20th and be made husband and wife. We extend congratulations in advance.

G. W. Ruparts and Miss Laura Cuniff, both of the Dunville section of Casey, were married at the Palace Hotel in Lexington Wednesday. Rev. Montgomery, of Kentucky University, performed the ceremony.

As intimated in our last issue, four Lincoln county hearts were made two Tuesday. They were Miss Bettie Powell, of Hustonville, and Mr. William H. Murphy, of this place, and Miss Mayme Wheeler and Mr. Burdett Powell, both of Hustonville. Elder John S. Shouse, of Lexington, said the ceremony in that city and a few hours later the first named couple, accompanied by Miss Nellie Murphy, were speeding on their way to New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Powell spent a short while in Lexington and returned to Hustonville where a warm welcome was given them. Miss Nellie Murphy will go on to Sherman, Texas, from New Orleans and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will return to his splendid home near here after enjoying Mardi Gras and seeing the sights of the Crescent City. Mr. Murphy's bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Powell and is as popular as she is pretty and accomplished. Mr. Powell's bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wheeler and one of the belles of her town, which is noted for good looking women. Both of the young ladies have a host of admirers, some of whom must feel a bit envious of the gentlemen who have won them. The grooms are among Lincoln county's best citizens and business men and their legion of friends congratulate them on gaining as help-meets two such charming women. Both of the gentlemen are intimate friends of the writer, who realizes his inability to mention them as kindly as they deserve.

MT. VERNON.

T. B. Lair was thrown by a mule Wednesday and in the fall his arm was broken.

George Frederick says "16 men and Billy Baker" are candidates for jailer in this county.

Independent telephone interests are making rapid strides in Kentucky as well as all over the country.

Circuit court began here Monday. A good crowd was in town the first day. There was not a murder case on the docket when court opened.

It seemed that every man and boy in the county had a horse here Monday for sale or swap, varying from a thoroughbred to a bundle of bones held together by rawhide.

Willie Henderson, eldest son of David Henderson died Thursday morning after a week's illness of pneumonia. He was an exemplary young man and his early death causes universal sympathy for the family.

In accordance to the law requiring idiots that are State charges to be brought before a circuit judge once every five years, several were presented before Judge Morrow. They were a pitiful sight to look upon. One boy of 18 has never walked a step nor spoken a word.

Republican candidates are getting numerous. For county judge there are Jones Fish, W. T. Short, A. N. Bently, J. A. Anglin, W. R. Dickerson, W. A. Hammonds and S. L. Durlam. For sheriff, G. S. Griffin, Andrew Baker, Granville Clark and H. L. Tate. County attorney, L. W. Bethurum. Jailer, E. T. Hansel. W. M. Baker, J. R. Gatlin, Wm. McKinney, J. W. Parsons and R. D. Cook, Jr. For county clerk, M. C. Miller, Bogle Phillips and Russell Dillion. For assessor, J. W. Kirby, J. L. Rash, S. B. Ramsey, &c &c.

Dr. Ewers, of this place, preached the funeral of J. H. Pugh at London yesterday. S. D. Lewis went to Tyronne Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Krueger arrived from Germany, where they spent seven pleasant weeks with relatives in the Fatherland. Railroad Agent Landrum is visiting Pittsburg and Minor Fish, one of our best boys, is running depot and wires. Charles Henderson is in Knox county delivering maps and has not heard of his brother's death, which occurred Thursday morning. Mr. W. P. Walton paid his first visit to this place Wednesday.

The homestead will be sold for one-third cash in hand, balance in one and two years' time with 6 per cent. interest from date. Possession of the land given when terms of the sale are complied with. Terms of the sale April 1st. Eighteen acres of the land is now in wheat, which the purchaser will get, but he is to pay taxes for the present year. The knob land will be sold for cash.
